Dear Mrs. Fatima,

I am surprised by the strict cancellation terms. Naturally, it is not our intention to cancel. Given the many years of experience and trust we have shared, I hope for your understanding.

If we were to book the rooms via Booking.com, we would benefit from terms that are more favorable to us. However, I prefer to book directly with you, as I usually do.

Kindly consider whether the application of your policy can be adjusted in this case and get back to me.

Kind regards,

Clarence Paulson

Dear Mr. Clarence,

Greetings from the serenity of Adamo Group of Hotels!

- Our inquiry concerns Adamo The Bellus.
- We are two adults who can share a room but not a bed. We can provide you with a sofa cum bed in the room.
- We would like either separate rooms or an apartment with separate bedrooms. Regency room tariff is Rs. 5000/- per room per night.
- As I have mentioned previously, I have good experiences with room #711. We would be happy to have one of our rooms as this one. However, the key is that the rooms should be non-smoking, located away from any potential stage areas, in a quiet part of the hotel, and preferably not on the ground floor. You are fully aware of our hotel and the rooms layout we can give you room on upper floor.
- Our planned stay is for 12 nights: February 14–26. Noted.

Please feel free to connect with me for any further assistance.

Dear Shirin,

I hope this message finds you well. I am writing to inquire about the details of our upcoming stay and would appreciate your assistance with a few questions

I would like to inquire about your pricing for two people, including breakfast (in a room like #711), per night for a two-week stay in February/March 2025.

Additionally, if your rates are provided before tax, could you please inform me of the applicable tax rate?"

I can't wait to return.

Kind regards
